

Tsui Lam Parent Notice

(2020-11-20) Updated Version

Dear Parents:

The government has announced in the Press release issued at 4:45pm that Special Schools will suspend face-to-face classes for Primary 1 to 6 starting from 23rd November 2020 (Mon) until 6th December 2020 (Sun). In light of the latest developments, the following teaching arrangements will be implemented starting from next week.

Junior Primary & Senior Primary:	Students will attend online classes according to the ZOOM schedule until 4/12, as announced by the government.
Junior Secondary & Senior Secondary:	Classes will continue to be suspended next Monday (23 rd) and will be replaced by online classes. Students will attend classes according to the ZOOM schedule until they receive the latest instructions for class resumption.

Please pay attention to your child's health and maintain a good routine and working habits. If you have any questions, please contact the class teacher.
